DOUBTS NAME OF GENERAL IKE TO BE OFFERED

McGrath Predicts Eisenhower Won't Be Placed Before Convention.

BULLETIN

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, July 9 — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower today informed Senator Claude Pepper of Florida "I would refuse to accept" the Democratic presidential nomination.

Eisenhower sent Pepper a telegram asking the senator not to put his name in nomination at the Democratic national convention starting next week. He said his "refusal" is "final and complete."

Pepper said he would comply reluctantly with the general's wishes.

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA July 9 — Democratic Chairman J Howard McGrath predicted today General Dwight D Eisenhower's name will not be offered to next week's convention as a possible party presidential nominee

McGrath told a news conference he does not believe that Supreme Court Justice William O Douglas will permit his name to be proposed as an opposition candidate to President Truman in the latter's bid for the nomination

The national chairman indicated that a resolution which Senator Olin Johnston of South Carolina said he will offer the national committee tomorrow is likely to be pigeon-holed

Johnston has talked of a resolution urging Mr Truman to step aside and call for General Eisenhower's nomination

McGrath said that this proposal would be counted to the national committee's resolutions committee, a group which McGrath has not yet appointed The chairman said the Johnston resolution can't be debated on its merits until it has been acted on by the resolutions group

McGrath told reporters he has been talking over the telephone to Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York City O'Dwyer announced yesterday he will not attend tomorrow night's anti-Truman caucus

McGrath said he had heard nothing directly from Frank Hauge New Jersey Democratic chieftain or from Jacob Arvey, Chicago Democratic leader Arvey has promised a statement today giving his and Mayor O'Dwyer's views on the presidential nomination situation

Turn To Douglas

There were some strong indications from New York, where the two conferred yesterday, that Arvey and O'Dwyer may have decided that if they can't have Eisenhower Douglas might be a good trial horse in the heat that most politicians here now think Mr Truman is likely to win

Making the long train trip eastward, James Roosevelt, California's chairman kept up a running commentary in favor of Eisenhower despite the general's stop - look - and - listen statement that he can't take a political nomination

At a brief Omaha stop last night, Roosevelt told reporters he thinks Eisenhower can't be counted out "unless he refuses to accept after the convention nominates him"

In the same mood Senator Pepper (D-Fla) told reporters here that if nobody else gets around to it first in next week's party convention, he personally will offer the general's name

The possibility that the more than 1 500 delegates who will pack the convention floor to cast 1,234 votes will get a chance to vote on Eisenhower, Douglas and possibly some others in preference to Mr Truman was not overlooked by the President's backers here

One Truman lieutenant, who declined to be quoted by name, said he thinks some delegate is almost sure to offer the general's name

Farley Opinion

But James A Farley who 'talked politics' briefly with Eisenhower at a New York luncheon yesterday said he thinks some of the people sponsoring the general "are doing him a disservice"

Mr Truman's friends were glad to agree with this They said it wouldn't look too good if Eisenhower's name were proposed and he got only a scattering vote on a ballot that made the President the nominee

Neither did these lieutenants seem worried by the new emphasis placed on Douglas' possible candidacy

And even Senator Sparkman (D-Ala) who has been casting about frantically for someone else to support because of the President's civil rights program, told a reporter he doesn't think Douglas

NEW COURT BLOW AIMED AT LEWIS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 9 — The government took a new poke at John L. Lewis in court, but the strike in the steel industry's coal mines seems sure to last until next Wednesday

That is the day Federal Judge T Alan Goldsborough set for a hearing on whether he should issue the stop-strike injunction asked by Robert N Denham, general counsel of the national labor relations board

The strike, now in its fourth day, started when the steel industry refused to accept the union shop arrangement in the new wage agreement reached by Lewis and the rest of the coal industry

The steelmen were willing to give the $1 daily wage increase and 20-cent welfare fund royalty provided in the agreement, but

YEAR-OLD RAIL WAGE DISPUTE NOW SETTLED

But New Round of Pay Demands for All Workers Said To Be Near.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 9—The year-old wage dispute that nearly tied up the nation's railroad system is settled

The three strike-threatening unions came to terms with the carriers at the White House last night.

But a new round of pay boost demands on behalf of all of the 1,250 000 railroad workers is just around the corner Management officials look for that struggle to begin in earnest in September

However, the long procedure called for by the railway labor act will delay any possible new strike crisis for several months after that

In the meantime the railroads will be back under private operation.

The government seized them last May and then got a court order forbidding the walkout that had been ordered by the three unions—the locomotive engineers, the locomotive firemen and enginemen and the switchmen

To Be Freed of Control

In announcing the settlement the White House said the lines will be freed of Army control as soon as the necessary papers can be drawn—without waiting for the formal wage agreement to be written out by the roads and the unions.

The new wage case had its beginning several months ago The 16 non-operating unions asked for a cut-back in the work week from 48 to 40 hours without loss of pay, and for an additional 25-cent hourly wage boost.

These 16 unions all received a 15-cent hourly increase last fall, but the three strike-threatening brotherhoods refused to settle for that without some changes in the operating rules That is what they got in the peace plan proposed on Wednesday by presidential assistant John R Steelman and accepted by both sides last night.

On top of the pay boost, retroactive to last November 1, the three unions will benefit from 16 changes in operating rules Many of these were recommended, along with the 15-cent increase by a presidential fact-finding board on March 27

The railroads agreed to reach a method for "expediting current" wage issues" That means the next wage demands of the three unions will be speeded up and handled along with those of the 16 other brotherhoods.

The chief gain to the three unions under the settlement arises from the railroads' agreement to pay for time spent by engineers and firemen while waiting for freight trains to begin their runs at starting terminals The first 75 minutes will be excluded.

Switchmen covered by the agreement will receive an extra 15 cents in their basic daily rate, but it will be used in figuring overtime beyond eight hours.

Switchmen members of A F Whitney's Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen previously had accepted a 20-cent increase. But Arthur J Glover, head of the hold-out switchmen's union, insisted Whitney's arrangement in effect had sacrificed the eight-hour day

Arabs and Jews Renew Fighting in Holy Land

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, July 9 — Arabs and Jews again took up arms to settle the Palestine question today and fighting erupted in both the northern and southern parts of the Holy Land front

Tel Aviv the Jewish capital was bombed five hours after the end of the four week truce at 1 a m eastern standard time Haifa Jewish held port city had its first air raid alarm since the end of the second world war

A Jewish communique said Israel's troops counterattacked and captured three Egyptian-held villages near Majdal, 28 miles south of Tel Aviv, but admitted loss of two other villages to the Egyptians The communique said fighting continued all last night after being started by the Egyptians at dawn yesterday, 24 hours before the end of the truce.

Attack Jewish Position

Haifa dispatches said Iraqi troops and planes attacked a Jewish position in the arc north of Jenin in northern Palestine.

Haifa's alert ended a few minutes after it was sounded. The sirens sounded 45 minutes after Count Folke Bernadotte the UN mediator had left for Rhodes He had stopped from a surprise last-minute visit to Amman where he conferred with King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan, in an effort to continue the truce or at least eliminate the Holy City of Jerusalem from the zone of military operations.

New fighting had been reported 23 miles south of Tel Aviv even before the truce ended, and in Cairo an official said there was "no doubt that the Egyptian army resumed fighting this morning"

Back in Haifa for a brief stop after his talks with Abdullah, Bernadotte would give no details on the conference other than to say it concerned demilitarizing Jerusalem He talked with Abdullah about this he said, because the Trans-Jordan Legion already holds part of the Holy City.

Invited by King

Apparently Bernadotte had gone to Amman on the invitation of Abdullah He spent an hour with the king there. An Amman report said the two discussed "many things, including the prospects of another truce in Palestine" to supplant the one which expired this morning

Under Bernadotte's peace proposals, rejected by both Arabs and Jews Arab parts of Palestine would be lumped under Abdullah's rule Abdullah long has dreamed of a greater Trans-Jordan with Jerusalem as its capital

The bombing of Tel Aviv came a few minutes after 3 p m. Israel time which was some five hours after the expiration of the truce One Spitfire plane was seen over the city during the attack It disappeared southward later The bombs apparently were of small size No details of damage or casualties were available Tel Aviv was bombed almost daily before the truce

RAIL FARES UP 17 PER CENT

Eastern Roads Granted Increase in Passenger Rates by ICC.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 9 — The eastern railroads today were granted a new increase in passenger fares averaging 17 per cent

The raise was authorized by the interstate commerce commission for all of the railroads doing passenger business north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers and east of the Mississippi.

The ICC order sustained the carriers' request for an advance of 20 per cent in basic passenger coach fares and 14.3 per cent in basic fares in sleeping and parlor cars.

The increases are in addition to the general 10 per cent hike in passenger fares granted by the commission throughout the country last year.

The eastern carriers recently advised ICC that last year's increase was insufficient to keep revenues abreast of rising operating costs

As a result of today's action, the basic one way passenger coach fare in the east will rise from 2.5 to 3 cents a mile and the basic sleeping and parlor car rate will go up from 3.5 to 4 cents a mile

The order provides for proportionate increases in round trip fares

3 AMERICANS DIE IN CRASH

Two Army Fliers and Civilian Killed as Berlin-Bound Air Transport Falls.

By The Associated Press

BERLIN July 9—Three Americans were killed last night when a United States airforce plane flying food to Soviet-blockaded Berlin, crashed near Frankfurt. They were the first American lives lost in the allied lift to the isolated city

Despite the accident and bad weather the western allies kept the momentum of the air ferrying service going today

In London diplomatic officials said last night Britain, the United States and France had decided to delay publication of their notes demanding an end to the blockade for at least 24 hours while Russia thinks the matter over

Crashes In Mountains

The plane which crashed was a two-engined C-47 The crash occurred deep in the Taunus mountains, 30 miles northwest of Frankfurt The plane burned after plunging into the woods on a peak

Three charred bodies were dug from the wreckage The victims were two U S air force officers —the pilot and co-pilot—and a civilian passenger Their names were withheld pending notification of relatives.

In Paris well-informed sources agreed with France-Soir's version of the French note—that France is willing to negotiate four-power differences in Berlin, but only on condition that Russia lift her blockade at once

The Russian air force informed the British royal air force today that Soviet pilots are engaged in "instrument flying practice" at Brandenburg in the British air corridor linking Berlin with the British zone, British officials said

The British have instructed RAF pilots flying supplies into Berlin to avoid the area, they said.

Called To Ranks

The western-licensed newspapers summoned all Berliners—including those in the Soviet sector —to protest the "brutal Russian blockade" and "ally yourselves for Berlin's freedom."

The Soviet-controlled press denounced the allied air lift as a "big bluff" and told the Germans of western Berlin that greater hardships would result if they put their faith in the western powers.

Franz Neumann, chairman of Berlin's Social Democrats, returned from conferences with British Socialists in London and said Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and British parliamentary leaders had assured him "Berlin will be held, come what may."

GALION POWER PLANT OPERATIONS DELAYED

Special to The Star

GALION, July 9 — John F Porter, Galion service-safety director issued a statement today that the No 1 boiler at the Galion Municipal Light and Power plant, under repairs for the past week, will not be ready to be put into operation before next Wednesday The repairs were originally scheduled to be completed the end of this week. Mr Porter explain that there is little hope of restoring power to industries before that time

The major Galion industries the city made an agreement some time ago to take a massed industry vacation during this week to enable the boiler to be repaired The front and side walls of the boiler were torn down. The world could not be completed on time due to the loss of bricklayers.

All the large plants, with the exception of the North Electric Mfg. Co plant, which has its own power system, have been closed throughout the week

The output at the plant has been held below 2,500 kilowatts during the week, while the usual demand is between 3,000 and 3,500 kilowatts.

VOTERS TO ACT ON BOND ISSUE OF $1,600,000

Will Be Placed on Ballot at "Earliest Possible" Date.

With the signing of a contract yesterday afternoon by the county commissioners and Mayor Harry L. Dowler, it became certain that the proposed construction of a city-county hospital will be submitted to Marion county voters.

The commissioners approved the contract by resolution with the formality of signing taking place yesterday afternoon in the commissioners' office at 3 p m.

Authority was given Mayor Dowler to act in behalf of the city by city council, which approved the joint proposition at its last meeting.

The contract calls for submission of a $1,600,000 bond issue, payable over a period of approximately 20 years, to voters of the city and county at the "earliest possible" date.

The money derived from the bond issue, plus a federal grant of $800,000, equal to one-third of the construction costs of the project, is to provide for a hospital of approximately 150 beds, a health center and necessary associated facilities, according to the contract.

Total estimated cost of the hospital project has been set at approximately $2,400,000.

The county commissioners have yet to determine the manner in which the special issue is to be placed before the voters. They have the alternatives of submitting it to the voters at the November election or of calling for a special election.

Must Be Certified

If the issue is to go before the voters at the general election Nov 8 election law requires certification to the board of elections by Aug. 4, 90 days before the election.

A special election may be held 40 days after commissioners have notified the election board of their intention.

It was indicated by the board yesterday that sentiment of the public would be gauged before final decision would be made as to whether or not a special election would be called.

The Marion Civic Planning association in the meantime has scheduled a meeting of its board of directors for July 19 to consider active support of the hospital program, according to Walter D. Moore, association president Moore had previously appointed a committee comprising A. W Katte, Robert Rush and E. M. Parr to study the hospital plan.

Provisions for Site

Under terms of the hospital contract, the city is to provide a suitable site of adequate size with sanitary, and stormwater sewerage available as well as electric facilities. If an acceptable site cannot be provided from city owned property, cost of acquiring a site and installation of sewerage facilities shall be paid for from moneys derived from the bond issue.

The city will deliver to the board of governors of the new hospital all equipment owned and used in the present City hospital, including equipment for approximately 100 beds and patient care, surgery, obstetrics, X-ray, laboratory, offices, kitchen, laundry, maintenance, pharmaceutical and other supplies.

It will provide approximately 65 per cent of the moneys to be obtained for the project.

Fire and police protection will be afforded by the city as will street lighting and sanitary and storm water service without charge if the hospital is located in or adjacent to the city

It is agreed in the contract that the Marion City hospital shall remain as city property. Plans for its disposition in the event the new hospital is constructed have not been worked out as yet. Several city officials including Mayor Dowler have mentioned possibilities of utilizing it as a city hall.

The hospital is to be constructed by a board of hospital commissioners with four members of the board to be appointed by the county commissioners. The board of governors, which will be set up for the management of the proposed hospital will likewise include county representation in the form of four members appointed by the board of county commissioners.

The contract will be declared void if the bond issue fails to pass by vote of the people or if the federal matching funds shall not be made available to the extent of one-third of the project construction cost.

60% Vote Required

The bond issue must be approved by 60 per cent of the voters.

POLIO MAY HIT EASTERN COAST

Disease Expected To Infest Seaboard States During Six-Year Cycle.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 9 — The medical director of the national foundation for infantile paralysis "guessed" today that infantile paralysis may be heavier in the Atlantic seaboard states this summer.

Writing in Hygeia, health magazine of the American Medical Association, Dr. Hart E. Van Riper of New York said:

"From studying the visitations of previous epidemics, it is evident that infantile paralysis moves in cycles with a four to six year lapse between epidemics.

"In attempting to guess where infantile paralysis may strike in the summer of 1948, we can see that the states along the Atlantic coast from South Carolina northward, have been relatively free from epidemics of infantile paralysis for the past four to six years. It is possible then, that the states along the Atlantic seaboard, from South Carolina to Maine, may experience a resurgence of virus activity.

"But whether outbreaks will actually take place or how severe they will be, no one can be certain. Nor should there be any undue alarm in the areas named. All efforts have been made to safeguard these potential trouble areas."

(Reports from Raleigh, N. C., said four of the state's 100 counties were regarded as epidemic areas and the number of infantile paralysis cases this year totaled 408, the greatest severity of outbreaks has been in the populous central section of North Carolina. In 1944 a record 878 cases were reported.)

Van riper listed these precautions in guarding against the disease:

(1) practice cleanliness, (2) avoid new contacts, (3) don't get overtired, (4) avoid chilling, (5) don't swim in polluted waters, and (6) call your doctor at once.

He said medical science knows there are many strains of virus capable of producing symptoms but does not know whether they are related, he added:

"Until this problem is solved, there can be no certain prevention or cure."

Roving Reports

By Hal Boyle

PORT WASHINGTON, N. Y. — ONCE upon a time early in the atom age—this is a true story—there were two Irishmen.

One Irishman was named Pat—Pat McGrady. The other was Bill—Bill Keenan.

Bill owned a big house on the north shore of Long Island. But Bill wasn't happy over it. The house was only 25 miles from New York City and Bill had a big worry. He was afraid that if anybody ever started tossing atom bombs at Manhattan his big wooden house would soon look like the bottom layer of the Pompeii ruins.

HAL BOYLE

Pat didn't own a house, but he wanted to. So through a newspaper ad the two Irishmen got together. Pat bought Bill's house and Bill took Mrs. Keenan and their four children and moved out to Montana.

That was in October, 1946.

Recently Bill Keenan, still a happy fugitive from the atom, announced from the mountain-ringed hamlet of De Borgia, Mont., that he had made a happy choice.

"We're crazy about this place," he said in "Atom Haven," a two-story place by the side of the road which he built as a restaurant for tourists. It also has living quarters.

Keenan, who was born in the New York area, said some pretty harsh things about city life and added:

"There is no safety in a coast city—economic or otherwise."

SO, JUST TO GET both sides of the picture, I came out here to see how the other Irishman—McGrady—was making out. He's the [illegible] and a [illegible] of Long Island.

"Bill's right about the atom bomb," McGrady said. "I [illegible] out there myself in 1926 myself. I like it. It's a good place to earn a living."

McGrady, an ex-Marine, and his wife, Grace, have three sons—Pat Jr., 15, Mike 14, and Seamus, 9. The rest of the household consists of "Big Stoop," a 90-pound pup, half Great Dane and half bloodhound, who eats half and nylon stockings, and "Superrat," an alley cat left behind by the Keenans.

IT'S A NICE PLACE, McGrady said. "We have a flower garden and a berry patch. The kids like it because we're close to Long Island Sound. They go swimming every day in the summer."

Living in a potential atomic target area doesn't worry the family at all. Their motto is "Atom Go Brag!"

"The Long Island railroad has enough trouble getting here," said McGrady, who commutes the 25 miles each day to his office in Manhattan. "I didn't think an atom bombardier could ever find it."

Said Young Seamus:

"The worst thing out here is [illegible]"

Mrs. McGrady said:

"I don't have time to [illegible] atom bombs. I'm afraid the mental hazards for housewives are pretty much the same everywhere—cooking, cleaning, washing, sewing."

THE TWO IRISHMEN write each other regularly.

"I understand Keenan only has to pay $1.65 in taxes last year," McGrady said. "That ought to start a stampede to Montana. Taxes are more likely to drive people out of the cities than atom bombs."

Besides "Superrat," Keenan left behind in the house three outboards.

"I'm looking to them to give me the upper on the first atomic assault," smiled McGrady. "Then I'll take my family west and move in with Bill."

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Painful Migraine.

PERIODIC attacks of excruciating headache on one side of the head, preceded by flashes of light before the eyes and accompanied by nausea and vomiting, add to the condition known as migraine, one of the most perplexing of all medical puzzles.

Dozens of theories have been advanced to explain its peculiar behavior but evidence is lacking to support many of them and none has led to a completely successful treatment. Experts of more than 70 years ago believed migraine to be due to spasm of the blood vessels in the brain and, even today, this theory is still favored by some. Our constantly expanding knowledge of allergy has led to the idea that migraine may be due to over-sensitivity, and it is also suggested that some disturbance of the glands of internal secretion may play a role in producing this disease. Vitamin deficiencies have also been proposed as a cause.

Sometimes a thorough examination will reveal the source of the trouble in the individual case and here treatment can be directed at preventing the recurrent bouts of headache altogether. In the vast majority of cases, however, no difinite cause can be found; hence, treatment can only be useful in stopping the attack as soon as possible after it develops.

For this purpose, the most helpful preparation seems to be one known as ergotamine tartrate. Drugs which dilate the blood vessels, and simple pain-relieving drugs do not seem to be of much value.

In using the ergotamine, it is important that it be given in sufficient dosage as early in the course of an attack as possible.

A derivative of ergotamine, known as dihydro-ergotamine methanesulfonate or D.H.E.-45, has also been employed with good results.

A more recent treatment consists of the giving of a combination of ergotamine tartrate with caffeine by mouth, or by giving it combined with atropine in a suppository which is administered through the rectum. It has been found that either of these treatments has been more effective in relieving the migraine than the ergotamine alone.

During an attack, the patient should be put at complete rest in bed, preferably in a darkened room.

The drugs mentioned above should, of course, be administered under the direction of a physician.

Questions and Answers

H. M.: What is the danger of an enlarged heart? Is it serious?

Answer: When a heart is enlarged it indicates that the heart has been damaged, often as a result of an infection or possibly from toxic goitre or hardened arteries.

Whether or not the condition is serious depends on the degree of enlargement and its cause.

A thorough study should be made to determine the exact condition of the heart; then proper treatment can be advised.

V F W ENCAMPMENT OPENS IN CINCINNATI

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, July 9 — The 28th annual encampment of Ohio's Veterans of Foreign Wars opened here today with memorial services honoring America's dead of all wars.

Business sessions were scheduled later today for the business of the auxiliary including the women's auxiliary.

The veterans will parade over downtown streets tomorrow and close the encampment Sunday with election of officers.

Ray H. Bradshaw of Denver, Colo., national commander-in-chief of the VFW, will address one of the encampment's business meetings. He said yesterday that settlement of a "little Marshall Reconstruction Finance Corporation" was the prime objective of the organization.

He said the VFW was backing a loan plan for young men, known as the Veterans' Economic Development Corporation act. The act now is awaiting congressional action.

In Plain Words

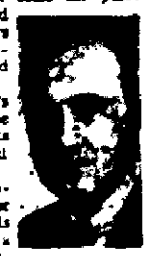
WASHINGTON

IN THE LAST MINUTE RUSH [illegible] congress a few [illegible] something which affects business

For example

The government now can compel a business like a plant or mine to do whatever work is needed by the armed services

If the plant owner refuses the government can seize his place He can be jailed for three years or fined $50 000 if convicted of refusing



James Marlow

And here's another example which affects only the steel industry

The government can order the steel mills to set aside a certain percentage of steel for firms making things for the armed forces

This was intended to make sure that small business would be able to get a share of the contracts handed out by the military

So the draft bill tries to give small and big business alike a share in the contracts

But this idea—that the government in peace time could compel business to do this or that—disturbed a lot of business men

President Truman finally stepped in and handed over the problem to Secretary of Commerce Sawyer He told Sawyer

GET THE STEEL INDUSTRY to agree — voluntarily — to set aside or allocate enough steel for every one doing work for the armed forces

Mr Truman said he wanted to [illegible] steel [illegible] the armed forces on their own [illegible] during the next [illegible]

[illegible] about 1 300 000 [illegible] at time or only about [illegible] per cent of all the steel produced in this country

SO COMMERCE DEPARTMENT people say they don't [illegible] the needs of the armed [illegible] interfere with steel [illegible] Commerce department will [illegible] the heads of all the steel [illegible] and ask them to agree [illegible] to allocate steel for the armed forces

They're expected to do this If anyone refused, the government would set up a priority—or [illegible]—for the steel he makes to be sure the armed forces got [illegible]

That's where the compulsive power in the draft bill hangs [illegible] over the business [illegible]

National Standard Milk Grading Scheduled Here

Grading of locally produced milk to officially comply with the nationally accepted grading standard of grade "A" will begin in Marion about Oct. 1. This was announced today by Dr John T Gruber chief city milk inspector

Milk now being sold here is of an equal quality with grade "A" milk but the specific grading requirements for marking local produced milk with the grade "A have not been in use

These requirements will be in effect and enforced on or about Oct 2, Dr Gruber said Special requirements for grade "A producers include special sanitation controls, a specific bacteria count limit and numerous other details These requirements are now being met by an increasing number of local producers and as soon as the meeting of requirements become completed by all producers the grading system will go into effect.

Dairies Providing Facilities

Two of the largest local dairies producing milk for consumption in homes here are making plans for production of the strictly grade A product a third is remodeling a plant for grade "A" production while a fourth is completing remodeling and building plans to convert its facilities with this end in view

One-third of the local milk producers are now in a position to put out a grade "A" milk product, a second third is repairing its facilities, while the final third already have plans or are planning for conversion to strictly grade "A" production Dr Gruber said

In the near future all milk dealers and producers here will choose one of the two courses of future action They will either convert for strictly grade "A" production or adjust their facilities for production of milk for sale to manufacturers of milk foods and cheese or for condensed irradiated, or evaporated milk canners.

Changed Conditions

The milk situation has altered radically here from a marketing point of view Dr Gruber said Twenty years ago all milk sold in Marion was produced within a radius of 0 miles of Marion Milk prices at that time fluctuated with the supply of milk producers could furnish and the demand for milk the people of the city provided

This fall in the family marketing pattern has now completely disappeared Milk prices are now set on a statewide and even national scale by competition not between individual producers but between producers of different districts In many areas the price wholesalers shall pay the farmer the price the retailer shall pay the wholesaler and the price the consumer shall pay the retailer are all rigidly set by wartime government controls which are still in effect

Areas Expanded

The distance to where milk is consumed from where it is produced is almost limitless with present milk transport facilities and milk being produced in the Lima area is now being used to relieve a milk shortage in North Carolina Milk suppliers for many large southern cities are located in the northern part of the midwest Dr Gruber said This sale of milk at great distances from the source of supply tends to strengthen prices in milk producing areas because of the greater outlet for the milk supply This was not true years ago and markets at that time were radically affected by a shortage of supply or too sharp an increase in supply For this reason the milk price in Marion at any given day is not a result of the milk market conditions here in Marion as of that day They are a reflection of prices in Detroit Toledo Cleveland New York Chicago and maybe even Memphis The great markets set the price and your local producer wholesaler and retailer conform to the set price which they themselves must follow but over which they have no more control than do you the consumer

FARMERS TO PLANT FOR WINTER COVER

2,000 Acres of Corn To Be Put in Grass Crop.

In the next two weeks 118 farmers in Marion county plan to seed nearly 2,000 acres of domestic rye grass and sweet clover in their corn fields

The seeding of this winter cover crop is a part of the soil and water conservation program on these farms as planned in cooperation with the Marion County Soil Conservation District

The leaving of cultivated fields bare during the fall winter and spring seasons greatly increases water runoff and the amount of soil erosion on the non-seeded fields as compared to other fields having a winter cover of either rye grass as well as clover or meadow crops, states W L Williams of the U S Soil Conservation Service A few simple rules must be followed to insure a better seeding Williams said the amount kind and time of seeding of rye grass are important in securing a good winter cover The seed of 10 lbs of domestic ryegrass and 10 lbs of yellow blossom sweet clover per acre immediately following the last cultivation of corn will improve the chances for a successful stand When possible the seeding of a cover crop should be the same day or the day following the last cultivation while the soil surface is loose

The use of a hand or tractor seeder will insure the seed satisfactorily and a following rain will cover the seed

Not only will the use of a winter cover provide ground cover but the roots and tops add to the organic matter and better the tilth of the soil for the succeeding crop Either spring oats or winter rye can be used to seed for a cover crop instead of rye grass if desired

Veterans' Insurance Deadline Extended

By the United Press

WASHINGTON, July 9—Veterans carrying national service life insurance term policies may renew them for an additional five years, the Veterans Administration announced today

If congress had not extended term policies, veterans would have had to convert their policies to one of six types of permanent policies

Term insurance taken out before Jan 1, 1946, are for eight periods from date of issue Policies taken out after that date are five-year periods.

Those who renew term policies will have to pay a slightly higher rate.

If a veteran took out a term policy at the age of 35 in 1946, he paid 67 cents a month per $1,000 of coverage Renewed this year at the age of 33, the premium will be 70 cents for $1,000 coverage

Mr. Truman Guessed Wrong

ON THE EVE of the Democratic national convention, with President Truman fighting for his political life, it's amusing to wonder how things might be if he'd guessed the other way in the spring of 1945 when Franklin D Roosevelt died.

When Mr Truman had the presidency thrust upon him, he had to choose between being himself and a shadow of his predecessor He chose to be a shadow He guessed that history would judge him on his merit as Mr. Roosevelt's trustee in charge of the New Deal He guessed wrong.

Mr. Roosevelt himself knew that the New Deal no longer was an issue in politics in 1944; he had ceased to talk about it then. Mr Truman, assuming responsibility for post-war policy, tried to revive something that couldn't be revived. Nevertheless, in playing his role as a shadow president, he took his clues from the same spokesman for the same blocs which had dictated public policy under Mr Roosevelt The unhappy result is current in history.

He knows now that the spokesmen were loyal to Mr. Roosevelt, not to the New Deal They were loyal to Mr Roosevelt because he apparently was unbeatable at the polls In 1948 they confirmed what they already had guessed—that Mr. Truman worked no magic on election day Thereupon they lost interest in his role as a showdown president.

Perhaps they remembered what had been revealed in public opinion polls during Mr. Roosevelt's lifetime—that he, not the New Deal, was popular.

Mr. Truman has been faithful to the New Deal and the New Dealers But the New Dealers and the blocs that went along with it for political convenience haven't been faithful to Mr Truman. They have left him holding the bag while they looked after themselves, according to their various views of self-preservation.

Mr. Truman knows now that he guessed wrong when he sacrificed his personal integrity in the hope of pleasing Mr. Roosevelt's followers. He has lost both his integrity and the followers. If he had chosen in 1945 to be himself, to rise above the level of political expediency and be chief executive in his own right, he would be a far happier warrior on the eve of the battle for his political life

Truce Without Conviction

THE ONLY chance the Palestine truce ever had of being turned into a basis of peace was destroyed by the circumstances which attended its making.

Neither side was in a frame of mind to make peace the desirable objective Both sides carried their bitterness into the truce period, which started last June 11 Both were convinced that a showdown ultimately was inevitable

The United Nations had nothing to contribute to the truce, except a desire to gain time—a breathing spell. As it turned out, the breathing spell was used for no higher purpose than breathing, with a resolution at the close of the uneasy interval calling on both sides to prolong it

In the meantime, the Jews and Arabs in Palestine have had a chance to regroup their forces and make plans for continuing their war There will be another occasion to call a truce, but it probably will not be called until bloodshed has dictated hard terms of necessity instead of the easy terms of convenience recognized in the truce that began last June 11 and now has expired in a renewal of war

Socialized Britain

BRITAIN has taken its most decisive steps as a Socialist state Going beyond limited nationalization of industry, it has placed in force the town and country planning act and the national insurance law Thus the Socialist state envisioned by Lloyd George and his pre-World War I followers becomes reality

The planning act controls all improvements by property owners and permits the government to confiscate any gain that results from such improvements It's sponsors admit it is a step toward government ownership of all land

The insurance law embodying the recommendations of the 1942 Beveridge commission, provides socialized medicine in the fullest meaning of the term as well as maternity allowances, widow's pensions and bonuses for new babies The maximum individual pay deduction will be $52 a year, which is far short of the estimated $2,000,000,000 a year to stay in the black up from taxes

The program differs in this respect from similar undertakings in New Zealand and Australia: Britain's economy isn't expanding; it is a have-not nation unable to find economic security within itself.

In questioning along this path Britain will face the test of carrying out full socialization while maintaining political democracy and individual rights and liberties In setting up this vast new bureaucracy, deadening initiative and levying confiscatory taxes, can it achieve social security without paying the totalitarian price?

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

Nationalism Certain To Survive.

THE revolt of Tito against Soviet Russia, whatever its outcome, marks a revival of nationalism in the Balkans Since the days of Woodrow Wilson and Jan Smuts at Versailles after World War I, the trend has been to decry nationalism, to develop an atmosphere of internationalism The League of Nations and the United Nations are expressions of this tendency.

SOKOLSKY

Nationalism, however, survives because it is a normal desire of human beings to protect their soil, their language their traditions, their religion, their folkways from assimilation, absorption and disappearance The revival of Israel after 20 centuries of struggle and dreams is a nationalistic movement Similarly, the recrudescence of Arab life is nationalist In the Balkans nationalism is particularly potent and goes far back into human history when the arts of Europe and Asia moved from area to area seeking a place for permanent settlement

The western powers during this century, hoped to prevent nationalism from producing wars by a system of self-determination and the recognition of the rights of minorities within an international structure such as the league of nations This failed, a war was fought, and the United Nations was founded to the same end but so badly devised that it has been unable even to take form

Sources of Trouble

One of the prime difficulties of both the League of Nations and the United Nations has been a desire on the part of the major countries to maintain the status quo. Both sought to keep human society as it is at a given moment to prevent change. But history is the record not of a status quo but of the rise and fall of peoples. It is a record of societies emerging, passing through a period of meeting great challenges, achieving primacy, settling down to productivity, success and luxury, being challenged by newly emerging peoples and either maintaining themselves or being destroyed by their inner incapacities. No nation was ever defeated which was not prepared for defeat by its own weakness particularly by its departure from the principle of life that gave it strength

Soviet Russia sought to solve this problem by recognizing autonomy within a structure of federation This method permits vast varieties of peoples to function as one with an empire that acknowledges differences in some fields but rejects difference in political and economic thought and practice The Soviet plan has not succeeded because in time of stress Soviet Russia is forced to insist upon rigid adherence to orthodoxy in thought and practice Autonomy then becomes a mockery rejected by the very power that granted it.

One of Soviet Worries

Thus nationalism in the Ukraine has always been a problem to Soviet Russia as nationalism in the Balkans is a problem today Whereas Soviet Russia is willing to recognize the right of any people within the federation to its own language, folkways and, to some extent even religious practices, it does not and cannot recognize the right of a minor people to develop into a primary state It also seeks to maintain a status quo, a freezing of geographical and physical lines Russia is not, for instance, prepared to permit Yugoslavia or a Balkan federation to challenge the primacy of Russia or even to achieve an equality with it It is unwilling to move the center of power from Moscow to Belgrade—or anywhere else

Therefore, Soviet Russia rejects nationalism as Great Britain and France have rejected nationalism for all but themselves For instance, the Russians can elevate Ivan the Terrible to national sainthood, but not John Sobieski, the Pole. But Sobieski, Kosciusko and Pulaski—and Paderewski—live in Polish nationalism as Peter the Great lives in Russian nationalism Heroes never die In Russia the Communists may worship Lenin, but the Pole may not respect Pilsudski nor may a Yugoslav regard Tito as a national hero. It is a paradoxical method and fails by its own contradictions.

Nationalism will gain strength in every country in Europe and Asia that is not independent and sovereign, for human beings do not long accept tyranny and fight, overtly or by any means, for freedom I am not extolling Tito, but Tito is an instrument of nationalism

After Eisenhower

By Raymond Moley

THIS reporter leans heavily on the theory that the more astute Democrats-for-Eisenhower were not counting on the general at all Anyone with the proved political acumen of Arvey and Kelly of Chicago or Hague of New Jersey must have known that Eisenhower was beyond their reach

They must have known, also, since they can have no illusions about the disesteem with which their names are held outside their own cities, that Eisenhower could not regard their outcries as the voice of the American people If they were such fools as to believe anything else, they could not have held power so well and so long Hence, we shall have to look beyond their advocacy of Eisenhower for some hidden political advantage and probably for some other candidate.

MOLEY

Almost any candidate of standing would fit their purpose, which is not to elect the president, but to help their local tickets That would apply to Justice Douglas, who has Dewey's youth and a set of views which would go well with the masses in the northern cities—a domain in which the bosses desperately want to hold local patronage and power

Prepared for Switch

Their support of Eisenhower was designed, therefore to hold together all anti-Truman sentiment until the general eliminated himself and then to make the switch to someone else. This strategy to someone else. This purpose, well considered

The insincerity of their professions of progressivism is shown by the fact that they would support a man of whose political ideas they know nothing Roosevelt's children and Mrs. Roosevelt must know that Truman has been loyal to FDR's ideas. They must know that the President has advocated and tried, however maladroitly, to carry out Roosevelt's policies. Eisenhower might be as conservative as Calvin Coolidge, for all we know.

Southerners Sincere

The purpose of the southern leaders in advocating Eisenhower is based upon a deep determination to make a protest against the Truman civil rights program. There is no hypocrisy about this. It arises from conviction Nor is it a mere play for political advantage, as in the case of Messrs Avery, Kelly and Hague.

If Eisenhower had not again made his position clear, it is doubtful if he could have been nominated in any event A chief executive, however dubious his future may be, still has great power Only Chester A Arthur failed to renominate himself, and in that instance there was James G Blaine to unite the opposition Even William Howard Taft could beat Theodore Roosevelt in the convention

There will be demonstrations and votes for other candidates, but probably, as James A. Farley says when the roll is called enough delegates will vote for Truman to carry him over After all, the payrollers depend upon Truman for seven and perhaps more future salary checks, and these dependents of Truman have great power in the convention They alone could determine the results.

Following the Party Line

"The Worker" Changes Course, Denounces Tito.

THE Daily Worker, mouthpiece of Communists in the United States was unable to draw 'detailed conclusions' the day Tito's denunciation by the Cominform was announced

By the following day however, it had recovered its aplomb and a statement was forthcoming from William Z Foster party chairman, and Eugene Dennis general secretary It declared the Cominform had "rendered an outstanding service to the cause of world peace the independence of nations and the fight for socialism by exposing the betrayal of that cause by the leaders of the Communist party of Yugoslavia

"In reality," Foster and Dennis asserted, "the communique demonstrates that the leading forces in the camp of world peace and democracy are alert to every danger Their timely action dooms to failure the efforts of the Marshall planners to split and disorient the anti-imperialist camp of peace and social progress"

Joseph Staroblin the Worker's 'Around the Globe' columnist confessed feelings of "shock and pain" at Yugoslavia's defection 'But after this shock what remains?" he asks "I think every Communist and every advanced worker feels a sense of pride and feels the tremendous strength and power of a leadership which is capable of taking such firm measures when the general interests of democracy and peace are at stake"

Such writing comes easily to the Worker. In 1941 it was praising Hitler one day and cursing him the next, and it has made many another about-face without losing the cadence of the tune called by Moscow.

Points of Interest

By William Feather in Imperial Magazine

A HOUSEHOLDER was having two trees removed from his front lawn To lessen the danger to motorists he parked two cars at the curb to force traffic to the middle of the street

Now for an observation In the course of an hour he noticed that not one woman driver paid the slightest attention to the operation that was in progress, whereas every man slowed down his car or stopped to survey the job

This led to the reflection that seven out of ten men get out of their car when buying gas whereas no woman ever dismounts On the other hand I am told that no woman passes a mirror without looking at herself, although not one man in five looks in a mirror. Women hate to see a window dresser at work on nude dummies and never stop to gape Men always stop and seem to revel in this mild immodesty

I am also informed that women rarely look in the window of a jeweler displaying expensive diamonds or gold. It's the men who are attracted My informant says women are repulsed by what they can't afford. One woman became enraged at the New Yorker magazine because it advertised so many items that cost more than her year's salary.

Anti-Semitism in Russia

From The Washington Post

IGOR GOUZENKO, as doubtless you know by this time, is the man who two years ago sent a thrill of fright and consternation through the statesmen of all countries outside the orbit of Soviet Russia by his revelation of the conspiracy by Stalinist agents within the Canadian government to steal the secret of the atom bomb. Mr. Gouzenko's story has been dramatized by Hollywood in a current production called 'The Iron Curtain," and his memoirs have been published under the same title by the Messrs E P Dutton & Co

Mr. Gouzenko relates that one of many amazing discoveries he made after coming to Ottawa as cipher clerk in the Russian embassy was that everything favorable to the Soviet cause and to the Communist party line was being supported by a large number of Canadian Jews. It surprised him, he said, because he knew that in Russia anti-Semitism has been encouraged by the Stalinist regime The revival of persecution in Russia appears to have been concurrent with the great purges of the later 1930's Although Mr Gouzenko does not say so, the official policy may have been influenced by the Jewish origin of many prominent figures among the "deviationists" of both left and right. At any rate Gouzenko asserts that—

"Hundreds of thousands of Jews were 'purged' in Soviet Russia long before the Nazi pogrom started. Besides those shot, thousands were sent to concentration camps Around Serov, for example, almost one-third of the inmates were Jews. In 1938 . . . we were told of a confidential decree of the central committee of the All-Union Communist Party which had been passed about that time The decree was sent out to all directors of educational institutes and schools throughout the Soviet Union.

Mr Gouzenko says that before he left Russia the undercover campaign against Jews within the Soviet bureaucracy was being reflected in the public behavior of the NKVD and resulted some examples that came under his personal notice Gouzenko's astonishment at the enthusiasm for the Stalinist regime by so many Jews outside Russia who know nothing of conditions within the Soviet Union is equaled by his scorn of Jews such as Ilya Ehrenberg who are well acquainted with the pogroms and remain silent about them

Taxi Talk in Contract

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH—The 1,100 AFL drivers of the Yellow Cab Co have a new contract in cabbies' language Legal wording is translated into 'taximan's talk"

For example there's 'lost calls" persons who phone for a cab and then fail to show up "Gas line" means the line of cabs waiting to have gas tanks refilled "Hit the boxes" means that cabbies stop and call their stations.

"It's just plain taximan's talk," a cab official said "We wanted all the drivers to be able to understand their new agreement"

There is a strength of quiet endurance as significant of courage as the most daring feats of prowess.—Henry Theodore Tuckerman

Another Convention Coming Up

Another party convention is at hand and here within a month the people will be treated to a national demonstration in the art of fence straddling, voluntary heat prostration, gobshorful speechmaking and the value of off-key tenors in perpetuating democracy.

The Democrats almost always put on a better show than the GOP in point of amusement and action They seem to have better direction the well written script and finesse A Democratic convention is a cross between a Golden Glove tournament, a professional wrestlers carnival, a country fair and an argument in a crowded bus

There are always moments when you wonder if they are trying to bring back the bacon or bring back old time vaudeville

PHILLIPS

This one too will be a television convention which points out the glorious parties guarantees and intents and proves that politicians think a party must establish superiority in women who sing the national anthem off key and frog-callers who think they are silver tongued orators

• • •

The Democrats will probably go the Republican circus one better by introducing a few old-time Barnum antics and a two-headed calf

• • •

The Philadelphia party looks like a three ring circus The most important official may be thrown off the counter at the knockdown.

• • •

The main disturbance will be due to the fact Harry Truman after serving four years refuses to accept a pardon or a commutation of sentence

• • •

Harry is entitled to a second term by tradition he has the pledged delegates on paper and he has the determination to get it or bust But at the moment it looks like a question whether or not he is facing a convention or a road block

• • •

Only one thing is certain The Missouri delegates will find it 20 degrees cooler inside

• • •

Harry is well liked and nobody gets a kick out of spiking him as he tries to steal second Denouncing him is like razzing a performer who didn't get a perfect score in a rodeo But these are times that try men's souls and there is a feeling the menu calls for a superhuman personality who can block kick run and pass Join those able to play Elwood P Dowd or "Harvey"

• • •

Nobody could have come through the last four years in that Potomac doorybrook with a batting average of more than 200 but Harry had trouble making 100 And the critics say he used the wrong end of the bat fared the catcher and insisted on a ground rule of two bases on all foul balls

Party leaders are herding up to name somebody else to step into the box and there is a growing plea for Harry to be a sport and let nature take its course Indications are that the convention will prove indoor fights are superior to outdoor contests. The Philadelphia show should be as profane as "Mr Roberts" more exciting than 'Command Performance" and funnier than "High Button Shoes' Okay, boys and come out swinging'

SHUDDA HADDIM spent the weekend moaning over the fact he missed Five Points $109 "Think of it" he groaned 'This was King Ranch skinner and trained by Mr Hirsch' King Ranch don't fool around with bums and Maxie is known for putting on surprises I tell myself this all the way out on the train I put a ring around Fire Point on the program And I go to the favorite on a last minute tip from Kalsominer who goes to the races once a year and gets his information from code sheets We asked him if he liked Stymie when that horse topped $900,000 "Naw," he grunted "I still think Stymie is a dumb skate or he wouldn't want to make that kind of money in times like these The dough is only worth a quarter and he has to run a full 5,280 feet to the mile for it. What's smart about that?"

Know-Nothing Natives

By TRUMAN TWILL

A native is the fellow a tourist asks for directions, on the theory that the native should know all about the place he lives in Nothing could be further from the truth

As a tourist, I have asked many natives for directions and never found one who knew what he was talking about Natives, unless they are cab drivers, policemen or filling station attendants accustomed to giving directions, know nothing about their habitat

They get where they want to go by a combination of instinct and trial and error But a stranger isn't interested in trial and error He lacks instinct or he wouldn't be asking for directions The kindest thing to do to him is to add nothing to his confusion

A few nights ago a stranger seeing the writer strolling in his shirt-sleeves—obviously a native—asked for directions about a highway he had missed by a matter of several miles The poor sap wasn't even headed in the right direction

This was made plain to him adding to his confusion. He then was given complicated directions for getting back on the right track The trouble was that he was so far from where he needed to be that the directions were foggy Just how foggy wasn't discovered until later

Consumed by doubt and misgivings, the native tried to follow his own directions the first time he got behind the wheel If the poor stranger followed them, he ended up in a factory parking lot in a lonesome end of town late at night on the wrong side of a street with no bridge closer than eight blocks away

This is a pledge The next time a stranger asks this native for directions, he is going to be told

"Look, stranger I'd like to help you But I'm going to do you a favor You're all mixed up or you wouldn't be lost in the first place In the second place you can't even get where you need to be from where you are now You're too complicated

"I could give you directions I might even draw you a map but it wouldn't do any good either Believe me I know what I'm talking about Half the time I'm lost myself but it doesn't matter I live here Sooner or later I find my way home

"See that filling station ahead of you? Go there and tell them you asked directions from a native named Twill Tell them what he told you They'll understand and send you on your way There will be no obligation. The filling station boys have promised that if Twill doesn't try to tell strangers how to get where they want to be they won't write any columns for newspapers. Reciprocity, see? Every man to his own racket Welcome to our city—and farewell.

SOCIALITE GUILTY IN LOITERING CASE

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 9—A municipal court has found Mrs Nancy Fletcher Chorem, daughter of a U S career diplomat guilty of loitering for purposes of prostitution.

The comely, 27-year-old brunette was convicted yesterday along with two other women, Madeleine Beaver and Mrs Margaret Starr also accused on vagrancy counts.

Magistrate Arthur Markewich raised the bail of the three women from $1 000 to $2 500 each, and paroles them in custody of their attorneys pending their appearance in court today.

He said he would set a date for sentencing at that time.

Gabriel Mooney police legal representative who prosecuted the case, said the women face terms of up to three years each.

They were found guilty mainly on the basis of telephone conversations tapped by a policeman.

The officer testified in court that in one telephone conversation he heard the Blaver woman tell Mrs Chorem about a date and suggested she get paid and go by herself at the same time.

Magistrate Markewich said I am afraid that the various conversations in a pure platonic manner testified to by the defendants are the commonplace of the acts charged.

Both the Blaver and Starr women denied the charges from the stand. Mrs Chorem did not testify.

Counsel for the three said the case will be appealed.

Mrs Chorem is the daughter of Dr C Paul Fletcher U S consul general in Casablanca, is married to George Chorem, wealthy cotton broker in Egypt, and the mother of a five-year-old son.

Social Events Held By Business College Students

Two social events were held recently by the student organization of the Marion Business college. A party at the school was in honor of new students, and a wiener roast was held at McKinley park. Election of officers was held with the following results: Charles Carr president; Jean Thaken vice president; Avalee Shipman, secretary, and Don Reynolds, treasurer. Games and dancing were the entertainment at the party. Each student was presented an "old fashion garden" corsage, and refreshments were served in a room decorated with garden flowers. The winner roast was for both the day and night school group. A softball game was played. Carl and Clyde Bloch provided entertainment, and other features of the event included group singing.

HENNEY & COOPER

LOSES 60 POUNDS WITHOUT DIETING, THANKS TO RENNEL

New Madison Lady Praises Reducer

"I am very happy to recommend Rennel writes Mrs. S. Helmuth. "When I started taking Rennel I was very overweight and was bothered with that overstuffed feeling Now that I have lost 60 pounds I feel better in every way I would have lost weight faster if I had watched my diet but I ate anything I wanted all of the time. That is what I like about Rennel it isn't necessary to diet as it is with other reducing preparations. I also like the way it took care of that over-stuffed feeling"

Rennel is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple, go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough unsweetened grapefruit juice to fill the bottle, take just two tablespoons twice a day That's all there is to it. NEA ANES FOR FEDERAL HELP

Educators Support American Legion Resolution for Government Aid.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 9- The National Education Association today underscored its aim to make federal aid to public schools the organization's top legislative objective for the coming year

In this the teachers had President Truman's promise of continued support The President's help was offered in a message read by NEA President Glenn E Snow of St George Utah, at the final morning session of 2,500 delegates who have been in convention here since Monday

Although the NEA's representatives say they took no formal action against Gov Thomas E Dewey of New York the Republican candidate's name was critized frequently on and off the convention floor for not providing his views on federal aid in response to a request from Snow

A resolutions committee report approved today does not set federal funds without federal control "The primary immediate need is public education

Join With Legion

Delegates approved a resolution Tuesday to join with the American Legion in seeking a special session of congress to pass the federal aid to education bill which died last spring in the house committee on education and labor after it had passed the senate

One of the many convention pleas for federal aid was voiced last night by Sen Wayne Morse (R-Ore) who shared with Sen Elbert D Thomas (D Utah) in presenting issues facing voters in the November presidential election

In addition to federal aid the resolutions committee headed by Miss Margaret Boyd of Steubenville O endorsed proposals to

Exempt teacher retirement pay from federal income tax

Urge teachers to "expose and obstruct activities of all groups which have as their objective the undermining of the constitution

Condemn any form of legislation which in the name of national security sets up parallel educational agencies that absorb or supplant the programs of educational facilities now in existence

B.A Degree Essential

Discontinue issuance of emergency teaching certificates and set as minimum educational qualification for all teachers' a bachelor's degree "with in-service requirements for additional work toward a master's degree or its equivalent"

Expand public schools' programs to "provide summer camping recreational and creative activities"

Make the U S office of education "an adequately financed independent agency, headed by a national board of education" appointed for long terms by the president with senate consent

Study conditions where dissatisfaction arises from salary problems and take suitable action that will make strikes unnecessary"

Support the United Nations as "designed to maintain security and peace and provide systematic instruction about UN

Continue "assistance to educational reconstruction in war-devastated countries and increase the existing program for exchange of teachers among nations

CITY, COUNTY WORK LISTED

Church St., Mt. Vernon Ave. Improvement Included in Program.

E O Uncapher city safety-service director today announced July 30 as the date bids will be accepted by the state highway department for three Marion city, state, county road improvement jobs.

Of primary interest here will be bidding for the job of improving 1.421 miles of state route 95 in the city. This work estimated to cost $24,800 will start at the postoffice corner at East Church and South State streets continuing east on Church street to the point where Vine street and Mt. Vernon avenue meet (Church street) thence on Mt. Vernon avenue to the corporation line. The work will require two coats of black top hot mix. The city has already paid its share of the cost of the improvement $10,000.

Other road improvement jobs in the county that will be up for bid at the same time are the bituminous paving of 2.788 miles of county road 100 the Keener pike lying in Big Island and Marion townships and 0.893 miles (9/10 of a mile) of route 529 in Pleasant and Richland township. This latter job will require a hot mix costing of two sections of the road and the building of a steel beam bridge with a concrete deck and substructure over Grave Creek and a concrete capped steel pile substructure over Riffle creek. Mr Uncapher said state engineers had promised to keep both city and county road officials advised of the progress of all bidding and letting of contracts.

Boys Punished For Grange Hall Damage

Two Marion boys, one nine and the other ten, were reprimanded severely by Judge Edward J Ruzzo Thursday when they appeared in juvenile court after being caught committing acts of vandalism at the Progressive Grange hall on the Richland pike about a mile southeast of Marion Wednesday afternoon.

The boys were ordered to associate with each other only in their respective homes. Their parents are to make restitution amounting to $25 for each boy to cover damage done to the hall. In addition the boys were told to clean up the mess they had made.

Apprehended by Sheriff LeRoy Retterer while still in the Grange hall the boys admitted tearing down curtains, overturning furniture and scattering silverware and dishes about. They had gotten out of the hall on their bicycles. Their activities attracted the attention of nearby residents who notified the authorities.

TRUMAN

can be built up into a major candidate in the time that is left."

And Senator Scott Lucas of Illinois, the senate's assistant Democratic leader spoke low of revolt and rebellion when he arrived.

Lucas who visited with the President more often that he didn't in the last session of congress, said he isn't running for second place on the ticket. But he didn't take himself completely out of that race.

Second Spot Choice

There were some signs that if Mr Truman gets the nomination for top spot on the ticket, he would rather have somebody outside of congress to run with him.

If the President turns away from congress for his running-mate some of Mr Truman's friends were saying that Gov William Preston Lane of Maryland might prove to be a mighty fine selection.

The civil rights fight is expected to break out in full swing Monday when the full 104 member platform committee takes up the planks one by one.

And the first of southern delegates who began to drift in here brought word that if there is a Dixie walkout at the convention—something even they can't say for sure will happen—that a new southern Democratic party may be born at Birmingham July 17.

There was talk of Senator Harry F Byrd of Virginia and Senator Richard Russell of Georgia as possible presidential nominees for such a convention.

Switch to Loans For Economic Aid to Europe

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON July 9 Emphasis in the European Recovery Program switched today from giving dollars away to putting them out on loan.

Three months old today the economic cooperation administration has found it easier to furnish outright grants to the Marshall plan countries than to negotiate repayable credits. As a result, all help so far has been on a hand-out basis.

But the foreign assistance act requires that $1,000,000,000—or about 20 per cent of the first-year recovery funds—be set aside as loans to finance specific recovery projects.

flatly refused to go along with the union shop for their $5,000 miners.

Denham in a formal complaint fired at Lewis and the United Mine Workers union yesterday agreed with the steel industry's position—that what Lewis is demanding violates the Taft-Hartley act requirement that a union shop can be legal only after employes consent to it in an NLRB election.

Under a union shop an employer agrees to see to it that all his workers join a union within a specified period, usually two weeks.

Lewis trouble is that he is barred from obtaining the required NLRB election. The NLRB can not conduct one until Lewis files a non-Communist affidavit and he refuses to sign one as a matter of principle.

MARION POWER HISTORY GIVEN

60th Anniversary Marked by H. J. Grigsby Talk to Exchange Club.

The 60th anniversary of electric power in Marion was marked by an address "The Electric Power Industry in Marion" given by Harold J Grigsby vice president and operations manager of the Ohio Public Service Co at the weekly meeting of the Marion Exchange club at Hotel Harding Thursday.

Reviewing the history of electric power in Marion since its beginning in 1888 when George E Turner first lighted stores on Main street opposite the courthouse with equipment powered by a borrowed Huber steam engine Mr Grigsby stressed the problem which faced Turner in proving to the people here that electricity was a power of lasting value not just a fad of the moment.

An Electrical "First"

The first house in Marion to be lighted electrically has been reported as that of H M Barnhart then located on the north side of West Center street near Leader street. The date 1890.

In those days Mr Grigsby said Marion was the mecca of sightseers for miles around who came to stare at the street lights and the lighted stores and houses.

By 1894 a larger plant was built to handle the increased demand for power which had risen to 3,000 incandescent lamps here. This plant served Marion until 1903 when the local electric company and street car line were sold to the Columbus Delaware and Marion Railway Co a predecessor of Ohio Public Service Co the present utility here.

Sold for $164,000

Price for both the street car line and the electric company was $164,000. Additions and improvements were added yearly until the building of the present plant at Newman's bridge was built in 1921. This plant served the needs of Marion and the district until Dec 20 1947 when the Marion Reserve Power Co lines were tied in with those of the Ohio Public Service Co. The Marion Reserve Power Co outgrowth of Marion's first electric company became part of the OPS system by purchase in 1946. It was then named the Marion division OPS and ranks second largest of the company's 10 divisions in the state.

Expansion Scheduled

The Ohio Public Service Co now has $40 millions set aside for an expansion and improvement program scheduled through 1950. The company now serves 160,000 customers Mr Grigsby said.

Guests at yesterday's Exchange Club meeting included Dr Walter McClaskey, Otto Hahn and Frank Phillips.

Poison gas is the best method for the destruction of moles one of the most troublesome of garden and lawn pests.

Eagles Make Plans For Annual Picnic

Five applications for membership were received at a meeting of Buckeye Aerie No 337, F O Eagles Wednesday night in the club rooms. Announcement was made that plans are under way for an all-day picnic for Eagles and their families in the near future.

Plans also were furthered to send Grand Worthy Aerie and past worthy president to the national Eagles convention Aug 16-19 in Seattle Wash. here to go on an all-Eagles train which will take the group on a tour through Canada and on to Alaska and other western states.

C F Conaway reported on progress of the playground being constructed at the corner of Avondale avenue and Silver street. Paul Beverage women president announced a meeting of District 3 at which Marion is located at Delaware Sunday at 2 p m.

Edward Pheasant general chairman announced a program to be given tonight in the social rooms with music by Mrs Margaret Schmidt at the piano and round and square dancing to be held Saturday night in the hall with music by the Chuck Wagon Pals. A supper for members meeting with George Augenstein in charge.

SUPPLY OF U.S. TIMBER LOW

Will Be Exhausted in 30 Years Unless Care is Exercised Now.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 8 — The forest service said today that the nation's "saw" timber will be exausted in about 30 years at the present rate of cutting unless private owners take steps to conserve, replant and reforest.

An official of the department told a reporter that if the forests are handled properly the danger of exausting the "saw" timber — which can be cut for lumber and other forest products — would be over in a few years and there would be enough lumber for everyone

"Cutting of saw timber is about 50 per cent greater now than the amount we are growing," the official said.

"It is estimated that 38,000,000,000 board feet of lumber will be cut this year from American forests — as much as in peak war years"

Most Privately Owned

The forest service is hoping to impress upon private owners the value of proper cutting of forests and of keeping trees growing

About 90 per cent of the timber i cut from private forests, it said

The official said recent surveys show that about 64 per cent of the cutting of trees is still done by the "old style," with no planning for preservation of the forests Twenty-eight per cent is "fair" and only eight per cent is said by the foresters making the survey to be of the kind that would build up the forests

About 75,000,000 acres of forest lands in this country are "poorly stocked," the service said and probably will have to be planted over again if they produce commercial lumber

6 Million Acres Planted

In the last 25 years an estimated 6,000,000 acres have been planted in trees The government has appropriated funds to help states finance forest nurseries and the service hopes plantings this year will be on about 200,000 acres, compared with about 100,000 last year

The forest service has advocated a law under which "stripping" of forests would be prevented and the private owners would have only those trees which are "ripe" timber coming in by selecting for cutting and allowing the others to grow Each state would enforce the proposed law

In addition, the service would have the government take over more of the marginal forest lands not now profitable for private owners in order to protect watersheds and grow all timber possible.

Some organizations in the lumber industry, he added, are opposed to any governmental interference or regulation of private forestry

URGES REALIGNMENT OF POLITICAL FORCES

By The Associated Press

YELLOW SPRINGS, O., July 9—Victor Reuther, educational director of the CIO United Auto Workers union, wants realignment of political forces in the United States

"America needs a political rebirth —a definite realignment of forces—so that the American people, regaining confidence in their ability to control their domestic economy, will then be prepared to act confidently on the world scene," he said last night

Reuther spoke at the Antioch College Institute of International relations

Two "pillars of a durable peace—listed by the CIO official were'

"(1) The economic rehabilitation and unification of Europe through progressive implementation of the European recovery program, and

"(2) Prevention of depression and achievement of a stable economy of full production and full employment in the United States"

"The Marshall plan is no panacea," Reuther said

But, he added, it "can provide a new lease on life to those reactionary social and economic groups that delivered Europe to Fascism after World War I—or it can lay the groundwork for the rebirth of a continent"

CAROL ANN POMRANKEY (above), three-year-old daughter of a forest ranger, was carried off into the woods and killed by a bear in the isolated Marquette National Forest The girl's mother, Mrs. Arthur Romrankey, told police officers that she witnessed the scene as the bear lumbered out of the woods and ran for the child as she played on the front porch of the cabin The girl's body was found a quarter mile from her home (AP Wirephoto)

Piles Are Never "Mild"

DANGER IN NEGLECT

No one should ever think of piles (hemorrhoids) as a "mild" disorder

Although they may seem a "mild" ailment especially when not giving pain or inconvenience, piles are in fact tumor formation without tendency to heal themselves, instead, they are likely, if neglected to keep increasing in size, involving more and more of the rectal area

Even a so-called "mild" case may be expected to undermine one's health, by inviting predisposing to or aggravating other ailments, such as indigestion, billiousness, stomach trouble, constipation, headaches, pain in back and down the legs, secondary anemia with its rundown tired feeling, and general nervous irritability

Removal of piles is the only permanent relief written guarantee My method produces little or no discomfort, does not require the use of knife or drugs and seldom is the patient required to lose any time from work or other duties

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

STARTLED speculation leaped into Olga's eyes, and her figure suddenly was tense

"Please tell me quickly what you mean," she said

"It is very simple," I said "Georges is ridiculously jealous of Noel"

Her face shadowed

"You mean because of Mary?" she asked "I was afraid of that It does not argue well for my daughter's happiness, but she is so wildly in love with Georges that even her pride seems to be forgotten '

"You are totally in error, Olga," I told her calmly, hoping that I was speaking the truth "It is my fault I should not have stopped until I had finished what I was going to say"

"I interrupted you rudely," she said "But I will not interrupt again Please explain what you just said '

"Georges is jealous of Noel," I repeated, "but his jealousy has nothing to do with Mary It is because of that old betrothal between Noel and Olina I know that he would be most uncomfortable if Noel were to stand beside him as best man Indeed, the antagonism between the two is so great that I am afraid of some sort of - unpleasantness—if they were thrown together too closely With Noel furnishing the music and Mr 'K' acting as best man, that possibility will be avoided"

She did not speak for at least a second

"I see," she said at last "Does Olina know this" she added.

"I told her all about it," I said "She ought to be very happy," she said. "To have the man she loves jealous of another man's former interest in her, that will be manna to her romantic soul But, tell me Madge I know I can ask you this Do you think there is any trace in Georges heart, of his former interest in Mary?"

I thanked my particular little joss that neither Olga nor Olina need never know anything of the ridiculous rhodomotade on the subject of his duty to Mary to which Georges had made me listen And it was with almost a clear conscience that I answered her

"I'm sure he hasn't a thought of Mary except as a pleasant, romantic memory," I said. "If ever I saw a man wholly in love with a women living only for his wedding day it is Georges in his feeling toward Olina"

Her sigh of relief appeared to come from the soles of her shoes

"You have no idea what a weight you have taken from my shoulders," she said. "I have been so worried about my daughter's happiness. And, of course, I agree with you that, no matter what Philip may wish, Noel must not be best man. But I don't know how I am to tell Philip"

"You know very well, Olga" I told her, smiling "that you will solve that problem as you do all others You also know, as do the rest of us, that you are the only person in the world who could change his opinion on anything '

"Dear Philip'" she murmured "But I must choose my time to tell him And, I must be alone with him. Can you conjour up some excuse to get Olina down to your apartment as soon as Philip comes back, and we have looked at the gowns he is bringing" He will have the joy of a child in exhibiting them to us

"I can think of a dozen excuses," I told her "Now is there anything else you wish to ask me?"

"Not a thing," she said with contrition in her voice 'I have delayed you too long already But I will hurry with my list of flowers for your Mr. Kennedy I know how impatient you must be to get that letter off to him'

Marion Cubs Split with Portsmouth A's in Thrilling Doubleheader

Triple Play, 9th Inning Homer, Pop Bottle Rhubarb, Mark Play

By BILL DIEM

For pure thrills you can't beat the pair of ball games Marion and Portsmouth divided between them at Lincoln park last night.

Both were won by one-run margins and they had a little of everything that makes baseball the great American game.

There was a triple play in the first game. Marion's first this year and a play that undoubtedly gave them the 3-2 verdict.

There was a home run with two men out in the last of the ninth that brought the Cubs from behind to send the second game into extra innings, a game that was won by Portsmouth 10-9 in the eleventh after rallies runs by each team left it knotted in the tenth.

Doc Staley Rattled

There was a rhubarb that ended in a flurry of pop bottles tossed at Umpire Doc Staley from all points in the grandstands.

There were five bases stolen by Portsmouth in the seven-inning first game, four double plays made by Marion in the second and 11-3 screaming fans yelling their lungs out for four and a half hours.

The two teams meet again tonight for the rubber game in the series and you can bet it'll be a dilly.

The game-saving triple play occurred in the first inning after Marion pitcher Bob Adkins had walked Charles Kaiser and Spots Brown on eight straight balls. With the runners off at the crack of the bat Rip Major lined a 3-1 pitch to Lee Bohlender in right field. Lee threw to Manager Frank Kristie on first doubling Brown and Kristie relayed the ball to Pete Schnepf covering second tripling Kaiser who had rounded third base before he saw that Major's blow wasn't a hit after all.

Walks 1st Three

Tennessee Morris did Adkins one better in the Cubs half of the first walking the first three men up to load the bases. A force out scored one run and Kristie's single another but the A's got back their two runs in the second when Adkins still wild walked two and fed Forest Rende a two-base pitch.

The winning blow was struck by Gene Bobzean in the fifth, his single through the box plating Pete Neukirch from second. Neukirch had walked and moved to second on an infield out.

A three-run outburst in the seventh inning of the night cap [illegible] the Cubs from an [illegible] game at five all. It was that inning that Doc Staley watched the pop bottles bouncing about the plate after he had thumbed the popular Nick Alvon out of the fray and off the field for freezing.

Another three-run attack put the A's out front in the eighth but the Cubs cut the lead to two runs when Pitcher Ray Peet doubled and scored on Bohlender's two-bagger setting the stage for the game-tying home run that was [illegible] in the seventh inning.

Pitcher Don Whitmore the third in a parade of four got Bobzean out in the 11th walked Frank Kaiser who was forced at second by Tom Gatti. Gatti then had no man to go to claim the win.

Schmitt Comes Through

But that man was Don Schmitt dangerous .300 batter and the Cubs leading home run hitter. Schmitt took a tremendous cut at a 2-2 pitch flying the ball high over the left field wall chasing Gatti in before him and the game went into the tenth inning.

Billy Pfeffer opened with a double and Davies sent him home with a single to centerfield but the Cubs came back in their half of the tenth when Peet singled was sacrificed to second and plated by Neukirch's single, the latter blow coming off lanky Bob Davis who relieved Whitmore after the sacrifice.

Consecutive two-base hits by Major and Manager George Staller gave Portsmouth the winning margin in the top of the eleventh Davis retiring the Cubs in order.

Dillard Draws Scott As Hurdle Opponent

By The Associated Press

EVANSTON Ill., July 9—Harrison Dillard the Olympic timber topping favorite from Baldwin Wallace will face Clyde Scott the NCAA champion from Arkansas in the preliminaries of the 110 meter high hurdles at the U S Olympic track and field tryouts.

This was established by the luck of the draw today when Dillard, Scott and Craig Dixon of UCLA were assigned to the same heat in the high hurdles preliminaries leaving Bill Porter of Northwestern as the top prospect in the over six-man semi final.

The final Olympic tryouts are scheduled to get under way at 6 p m EST at Northwestern University's Dyche Stadium and will continue through tomorrow afternoon.

Fifteen men already have nailed down positions on the squad departing July 14 for London where they will compete in the decathlon marathon 10,000 meter run and 10,000 and 50,000 meter walks.

Now with the list of available athletes trimmed to less than 200 by eliminations in the NCAA and AAU championships 53 additional places remain to be filled for the 17 other individual events and two relays.

Ed Collins played 25 years in the American league with Philadelphia and Chicago.

COOLER WINS 7TH, HUBER, STEELERS TIE

Huber and Commercial Steel played 11 futile innings of softball in the Thursday night Industrial league as rain and ended right where they started the game being called on account of darkness with the score deadlocked at 3-3.

League leading Universal Cooler had an easier time with Polish Steel in the only other game played in the league as they shutout the Steelers 8-0. Pitcher Kunkle gave up only two hits as his mates scored twice in the first two innings added five in the eighth and pushed across another in the bottom of the sixth as the cool Cooler combine notched their seventh win without a defeat.

Huber scored first in their game with Commercial getting one run on the top of the initial inning driving in another in the fourth after Commercial had scored twice in the third and another in the sixth. Commercial came back to make a new ball game of it with a run in their half of the sixth and neither team scored in the next five stanzas Millison pitching for Huber gave up eight safe knocks while Reeder permitted 11. Errors were held to a minimum with Huber cobbling three chances and Commercial making only one miscue. Marion Power Shovel and Fairfield Engineering did not play.

MUD HENS NIP INDIANAPOLIS, 3-2

By The Associated Press

If the fans at Victory Field in Indianapolis are wondering today what happened to their skidding league-leaders they can get a good part of the answer from the sixth-place Toledo Mud Hens.

Toledo won its third straight series victory from the Indians by a 3 to 2 score last night. It was Indianapolis' fourth straight defeat and put the leaders 3½ games ahead of Columbus and Milwaukee.

The Brewers extended their winning streak to five by besting Minneapolis 9 to 2 and moved into a tie for second place with Columbus. Last place Louisville snapped the Red Birds victory string at six winning 4 to 3.

Charley Stanceau pitched well enough for Columbus last night but Louisville scored two unearned runs on catching errors, one by Joe Garagiola and another by Bill Conroy who replaced Garagiola at the start of the seventh.

Outdoor Court Done —Except for Surface

Kenny Somerlot basketball coach at Harding High school and campaigner for an outdoor basketball court on which the school basketball players might brighten their court technique during the summer months succeeded after a winter long struggle in getting financial aid for the construction but now with the summer about half gone the project has been stymied by lack of black topping for a smooth playing surface he said yesterday.

The 84 by 50 foot court of the high school stadium a gift of the Booster club has been virtually completed but is less than useless due to the lack of topping which will have to be shipped in from Columbus. Meanwhile the summer ensues and Somerlot steps and the basketball court is [illegible].

Two other courts 0 by 40 feet which were to be built at the Vernon and Edison schools have not been started. These courts were sponsored by the Y's Men's club.

FIRST TO GET 100 HITS—Ted Williams (above) Boston Red Sox hard hitting left fielder became the first American leaguer to hit safely 100 times this year. Williams was also selected to represent the American league in the All Star game in St Louis July 13.

BLACKWELL BLANKS CUBS IN OLD FORM

By The Associated Press

ST LOUIS, July 9 — As "Blackie" goes, so go the Reds and it looks like they're both going places.

Ewell Blackwell's return to 1947 season form against the Chicago Cubs yesterday was the big news today as the Cincinnati team arrived for tonight's tangle with the fading St Louis Cardinals.

In whipping the Cubs 4-0 for the Reds' fourth straight win Blackie went the route for the first time since opening day. But more important he was strong at the finish fanning the final two Cubs for a day's total of 13 strikeouts.

The six-foot five-inch right hander threw his fast ball right past the Cubs and he had control. Only one Cub drew a base on balls. He worked like the Blackie who compiled a 1947 record of 22 wins and eight defeats including a string of 16 victories.

The Reds set up the victory for the stringbean hurler in the opening round. Two walks, Augie Galan's single, a wild pitch and an out [illegible] totaled two runs and Blackie [illegible] there. Ewell's 4th win against [illegible] losses.

Starter Bud Rush blanked the Reds thereafter [illegible] was nicked for a pair of runs in the seventh. The final Cincinnati markers were scored on Jess Dobernic in the eighth and ninth.

Howie Fox faces the Cardinals tonight and will have opposition from Harry Brecheen.

O.P.S., O.A.T. WIN SOFTBALL GAMES

Ohio Public Service Workers defeated Quaker Oats in the Wednesday Industrial league 10-1 behind the two hit pitching of Mathias to chalk their fifth win against three reverses. Ohio Associated Telephone topped Oswalt 11-7 in the second game. Only two games were played in the circuit last night.

The OPS team had little trouble in registering No 5 as they jumped to a eight run lead in the second frame and added scores regularly for their grand total of 15. OAT ran up a score of 11-0 by the fourth stanza and coasted the remaining three innings. Standard Oil and Osgood did not play last night.

AMERICAN LEGION BOOST

By The Associated Press

BOSTON — The American Legion's Junior Baseball program now 21 years old, got a big boost in the opening game this season between Philadelphia and Boston. Fifteen of the 18 players who started the contest were graduates of Legion play. The entire Red Sox infield had Legion ball experience and three of them — Stan Spence, Vern Stephens and Bobby Doerr — hit successive homers during the tilt.

Bold Sister Comes from Nowhere To Win Third Race in Good Time

By GEORGE SCOTT

A the fairgrounds last night more than 3 000 racing fans saw good examples of the uncertainty that has packed harness racing with color and excitement.

In the third race Bold Sister a brown mare that hadn't come close to winning in her last five races came from nowhere to thunder past the field of eight and win the mile contest in the great time of 2 10 4 5 At the half it was Silversmail Barbara Harmony and Eileen Volo in that order

Driver Boo Mason guided Bold Sister into the final stretch and there was no stopping her after that The crowd gave both driver and horse a terrific ovation for their ride in the 23 class pace for a purse of $400 The five year old pacer is owned by Mr Ray Eichenberger of Columbus

Makes Comeback

Merry Mite driven by Charley Baker trained the pack in the first heat a 9 class pace of 9 miles and finished a distance ahead Then the 12 year old bay mare came back to win the second contest a mile run for the green and gold colors of R W Lenox of Richwood

Mrs Mabe Chaney wife of Municipal Judge E J Chaney cashed a her daily double tickets minds disgust after the running of the first race She was going to tear it up when she noticed a wrong ticket had been given her by mistake and the horse had won He second choice Lee Stone in the second race also won and she collected $17 60

Walt Dispatch maintained his position as the meet leading driver by bringing in Reny Law first in the fifth and second the eighth race The bay mare owned by Chuck Erg and of Marion responded nicely to Dispatches handling and passed Ma Scott in the final stretch for a 1 12 win over the 9 16 mile distance In the eighth race a mile trot she placed second to Arcene Vogda a long shot

Reports of illness were provec ungrounded when Charley Norris driver of Mystery Mac in a with the fourth race a 9 16 mile trot for a purse of $400 He brought the mare up from third on the Win Wit on the back stretch and crossed the wire well ahead

In the first race a maiden pace for 9 16 mile Ben Ash passed Von Wit on the back stretch and made an impressive showing by winning by five lengths Boo Mason who did such a fine job driving Bold Sister home in third was Ben Ash's driver and the night's only double win driver

MUNCIE REGAINS LEAD IN HOT RACE

By The Associated Press

Just you're up then you're down in the red hot Ohio-Indiana baseball league flag chase

Muncies Reds captured first place again last night with a double victory over Zanesville That win displaced Springfield's Giants who split even a Lima Springfield had a typical tenure as cellar leaner The Giants were astride the standings just 24 hours Now they are a half game behind Muncie

Muncie took both games on effective pitching Larry Miller held Zanesville's Dodgers to five hits for a 3 verdict in the opener and Ken Lanning and Stan Kauffman elbowed a composite five hitter in the nightcap for a 6 3 win

Springfield outhit Lima in the opener of its double bill but the Terriers placed their blows effectively for a 6-5 victory Springfield bludgeoned a 10-5 triumph in the nightcap

In other league contests

Richmond took advantage of wildness by Newark pitchers to win 3 2 in the first game only to have Newark shade them 4 1 in the afterpiece Manager Bob Dill of Newark iced the second game with a three-run homer in the third frame of the second game

THE SECOND BASING of Gene Bobrean as compared with his shortstopping here last year is as different as day from night most of the fans agree Gene, a goat a good deal of the time last year, seems to have found himself at the keystone He figured in four double plays last night his pivot and relay to first a thing of perfection On fly balls he can't be beat though occasionally he'll boot a grounder He's mean at the plate, too Batting .326 Tom Gatto, making his first home appearance behind the plate in over a month got a cheer from the crowd when his name was announced in the lineup for the second game They like his hustle Tom has been sidelined with a broken thumb but returned to action on the road trip Folks thought they had seen the last in tall lanky pitchers when Ed (Tennessee) Morris stepped into the mound in the first game but they saw an even taller beanpole when Bob Davis came in in the tenth inning of the second game Bespeckled Ed stands 6-7 and Bob tops that an inch or two

OWU's Quent Breisford Is Ready For Final Olympic Distance Test

Special to The Star

DELAWARE, O., July 9 — Still recovering from foot bruises incurred in the National AAU meet at Milwaukee last weekend, Quentin Breisford, dean of Ohio distance runners, will compete in the U S Olympic tryout finals in the 5,000-meter run at Northwestern university today

Breisford who qualified for the 5,000-meter finals by placing third in that event at Northwestern's AAU meet three weeks ago, failed to place in the 10,000 meter Olympic tryouts run at Milwaukee last week when blisters developed on both feet during the race

Stating that he feels his feet will be healed in time for the 5,000 meter test tonight, Quent claims he will attempt to cut 14 seconds off his qualifying time of 9 14 the third best recorded for the 3 mile 188 yard distance in the country this spring

As captain of Ohio Wesleyan university's track and cross-country teams, Breisford led the field of Ohio distance runners this year The Wesleyan ace has been defeated only once in the four-mile cross-country run In 1946 he climaxed an undefeated season by winning the NCAA championship at East Lansing, Mich Last fall he suffered his lone defeat in the four-mile grind at the NCAA meet Leading the field by 15 yards, he fell on the slippery course only 400 yards from the finish line and placed third

Holding the Ohio Wesleyan Selby field records in the half-mile and mile he further distinguished himself this spring by lowering the Selby mark in the two-mile run Quent, who was undefeated in the two-mile this spring, won the event in 9 31 8 in a dual meet against Dayton to clip one second off the old record which had been set by Gil Dodds in 1941

Besides winning the two-mile crowns in the Ohio Conference All-Ohio, and Ohio AAU meets, Breisford captured the Ohio Conference mile championship

INDIANS MEET BROWNIES TODAY

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 9—The Cleveland Indians' "first cousins," the Chicago White Sox, left town last night, but another group of relatives in the persons of the St Louis Browns arrived for the opener of a three-game series tonight.

The Tribesmen are hoping the Brownies will be as well-behaved as the White Sox were The sweep of the two-game series with the Chicagoans enabled the Indians to boost their American league lead from a slim 10 percentage points to a full game over the Philadelphia Athletics

The Redskins scattered base hits all over the stadium in the series finale with the Sox yesterday, clouting two home runs, six doubles and seven singles for a 14 to 1 frolic and the club's season high for run production in a single game

Al Gettel, a former Indian, was slugged for 11 runs and 12 hits before Manager Ted Lyons mercifully removed him in the seventh

Dale Mitchell, Hank Edwards and Joe Gordon got three hits apiece Mitchell had two doubles and a single, while Edwards and Gordon each had a double and two singles

Ken Keltner got only one hit, but it was a big one—his 20th home run of the season into the lower left field seats Catcher Jim Hegan drove in five runs with a double with the bases loaded and a round-tripper with one aboard in the third It was his fifth of the season

Gene Bearden gave the Sox eight hits in notching his seventh triumph against three losses

Bob Lemon, who may be the starting hurler for the American leaguers in the All-Star game next Tuesday, will seek his 12th victory of the year in the opener against the Browns tonight Fred Sanford, who has a 6-8 record, will oppose him

Manager Lou Boudreau said today that Larry Doby will be installed as the Tribe's regular center fielder when his sprained ankle has healed completely The fleet Negro will not be ready for full-time duty before the Indians embark upon the third tour of the east next week

The match was a test of speed and cleverness, rather than a show of brute force

PRISONER HELD IN SHOOTING

One Killed, Three Wounded in Wild Fracas in Stark County.

By The Associated Press

CANTON, O, July 9—A 33-year-old ex-convict was held for questioning here today following a wild shooting spree in which a captive motorist was killed and three persons wounded

Stark County Prosecutor D Deane McLaughlin said John Burson, the former convict, would be charged with murder in the fatal shooting last night of Elsworth Ruch Jr, 26, of Canton

Burson's wife, Vera, 39 and Marion Hasley, 24, of nearby Genoa, were hospitalized here with bullet wounds as a result of the fracas Another injured victim, Raymond McGinnis, 40, of Massillon, was released after emergency treatment for scalp lacerations

Sheriff's Deputy Wilbur Ronk gave this version of the fracas Burson came to the Genoa home where his wife was working and the couple engaged in an argument. Burson grabbed a .22 caliber revolver, fired a shot which grazed his wife's head and then dragged her into the street, beating her with the gun

Hasley, a neighbor, attempted to disarm Burson and was shot in the arms and legs. McGinnis was struck by the gun-wielding Burson in the street, and the latter then drove to Canton.

The ex-convict stopped Mr and Mrs Ruch in their auto at Canton, forced Ruch to drive at gunpoint and then shot the captive driver while Ruch's wife Patricia 19, watched from the rear seat Burson then forced Mrs Ruch to drive the auto south of Navarre O

Mrs Ruch escaped from the automobile on route 2 and screamed for help Members of a Mennonite prayer meeting ran to a cornfield, where Burson had ditched the car captured Burson and held him until deputies and state highway patrolmen arrested the former inmate of Mansfield reformatory

Prosecutor McLaughlin quoted Mrs Ruch as saying Burson fired several bullets into Ruch's body after the woman told Burson her husband had been killed by the first shot

Burson admitted McLaughlin added that he had spent 11 years in the reformatory for auto theft and highway robbery
